Our translators

Russia has been always famous for having talented translators. It is widely known that in many cases books of foreign poets and writers after being translated compared favourably with originals owing to taste and talent of those who had translated them. We can't promise that our translation will be better than originals. We can guarantee that we will execute it properly and in due time!

We work only with the best translators

For several years we have been conquering market by working over translations for clients from different activity areas, including business-, production-, science-, medicine-, literature-related ones. By now "Flarus" Translation Agency has succeeded in building a strong team of experienced translators and editors able to work over translations related to almost every subject area. Native speaker

Native speakers are linguists engaged in translation of texts into their native languages and constantly immersed in the language environment. A native speaker is indispensable in translating texts addressed to foreign audiences. Only a native speaker is capable of achieving perfect stylistic correctness of the text. "Flarus" Translation Agency is happy to offer you services of such specialists.

Stylistic editing of the text

Stylistic editing of the text is the adaptation and refinement of the text aimed at re-dressing its stylistic character and enhancing its easy-to-read quality. Such editing should be performed by a native speaker of the target language.

Translation Proofreading

Our specialists can proofread a translation performed by another translator and do the necessary corrections. The cost of such editing/proofreading makes up 80% of the cost of respective translation.

Reserve a translator

Clients that cooperate with us on regular basis have the opportunity to choose a translator for a job. If you are satisfied with the quality and regular performance of a certain specialist, we provide an opportunity to reserve this specialist for your future orders. This way you will be guaranteed the priority in assigning a particular specialist to do the translation for you. If you notify us of the coming order in advance, it will be easier for us to pre-plan the schedule of your translator so that he or she will be available at the time you submit the text.

Our translations portfolio

The information about our current orders is aimed for regular clients of the Agency and reflects the current status of the orders placed, but it is still possible that this information may help our potential clients to assess our capabilities.

Flarus Translation Agency was established in 1999. In course of its existence we have performed 12,000 translations for over 6,000 clients and translated 17 books ready for publication.
